SEGA SATURN: THE ULTIMATE SPORTS MACHINE

LOS ANGELES, May 11, 1995 -- Sega Sports' takes sports action to the extreme with its stellar line-up of next generation sports video games only available for Sega Saturn -- the ultimate in-home sports machine.

Sega Saturn takes Sega Sports' realism deeper than ever before with killer perspective and in-the-game sensations that will keep the adrenaline pumping. Sega Sports' is showing its muscle power by combining the detailed features of world class sports with the advanced home technology of Sega Saturn.

Sega Sports crosses the finish line first every time with titles such as:

o Sega Sports' Daytona U.S.A.™ -- Move over BMW -- there's a new ultimate driving machine on the road!

Put the pedal to the metal in Sega Sports' hottest racing game ever. Driven by Sega Saturn technology, "Daytona U.S.A." -- the arcade phenom -- has unleashed arcade-perfect graphics and speed. Eye-popping 3D graphics magnetically pull gamers into the drivers seat to experience the game's unmatched authenticity. In arcade mode, racers can choose from three challenging tracks, four different driving perspectives and automatic or manual transmission. In Saturn mode, you get loads of options not found in the arcade hit like multiple cars with different transmissions, acceleration, grip levels and top speed capabilities. The five levels of difficulty create awesome experiences for all levels of players. Also check out the "Mirror Mode" where you can race each of the three demanding tracks in the opposite direction. The competition heats up when drivers ram each other or smash into obstacles throughout the course. Contact not only causes nasty dents, but affects speed, control and handling just like the pro-circuit. Sega Sports' "Daytona U.S.A." is now available only on Sega Saturn.

- o Sega Sports' Worldwide Soccer™ -- Soccer fever hits America bigger than ever!
You are now in the WORLD CHAMPIONSHIP FINALS. You can hear the crowds roar as you set up for a quick bicycle kick. The goalie dives, but misses intercepting the most meaningful goal of your life. As you hold your hands up to the sky, in a victorious gesture, you realize you are submerged in Sega Sports' world of International Soccer. Sega Saturn's advanced graphics capabilities literally put you in the game to fend for yourself. Twelve dynamic camera perspectives keep you close to the action and give you the best angle at all times. Sega Sports' "Worldwide Soccer" is now available only on Sega Saturn.

- o Sega Sports' NHL All-Star Hockey -- Sega Saturn melts the ice!
The hottest game to hit the ice -- "NHL All-Star Hockey," brings authentic hockey action to new dimensions. You're there along with the real teams, real players and real season action. And, you're weaving in and out like a pro. Propelled by Sega Saturn's graphic capabilities, the hockey experience has never been more realistic. The dynamic first-person perspective with over 16 additional views, including a revolutionary "puck perspective," puts you in 360 degrees of hard-hitting action. With twelve-player capabilities, gamers can control everyone on the ice -- even when a fight breaks out. Top that off with a rotating ice floor that moves with each play, digitized players and pucks and play-by-play commentary by Marv Albert to get the new standard set by Sega Sports for hockey video gaming. Sega Sports' "NHL All-Star Hockey" is now available only on Sega Saturn.

- o Sega Sports' Pebble® Beach Golf Links -- Pebble Beach is just a stroke away on Sega Saturn!
You might as well give your caddy the day off because you don't have to leave home to enjoy a day out on the course. All the realism of golf comes to life on Sega Saturn. Determine course strategy with the awesome "overhead fly-by" feature. The three different playing perspectives, include a Ball-Cam that lets you take flight from the ball's perspective. Craig Stadler is by your side to give you the play-by-play whether you're on the green or in the trap. You can play in seven different modes including Tournament and Match Play; track individual and course records, hole averages, handicaps and miracle shots. Sega Sports' "Pebble Beach Golf Links" is now available only on Sega Saturn.

- o Sega Sports' NBA Action™ -- Sega Saturn goes above the rim!
Are you ready to drive to the hoop against the real NBA teams? Sega Sports' "NBA Action" for Sega Saturn creates an incredibly realistic and slam'n'-good basketball environment. With all 27 teams plus the two expansion teams, coupled with the real NBA players and 19 dynamic playing perspectives, basketball junkies will be immersed in the NBA experience, compliments of Sega Saturn. With loads of options, stats and features, get ready for the challenge of your life. Sega Sports' "NBA Action" is winning the shoot out against the competition and is now available only on Sega Saturn.
